DISTRICT HOSTS OPEN HOUSE

WEST COVINA, CA. FEBRUARY 10, 2006: The San Gabriel Valley Mosquito & Vector Control District invites the public to visit our facilities for this year's Open House. Meet the technicians and vector ecologists to learn how we proactively work every day to protect you from West Nile virus and other vector-borne diseases in the San Gabriel Valley. Learn what you should be doing and what to watch for. See both the field and laboratory equipment that is crucial in our fight to detect and eliminate mosquitoes and the diseases they carry. Children are invited to explore Educational Science Stations and learn about insect biology, life cycles, and outdoor safety.

- WHAT: OPEN HOUSE
